

French immersion courses

Academic year 2022-2023

Our International Center for Language and Civilisation

Created in 1977, the International Center for Language and Civilisation (CILEC) is the school dedicated to French as a foreign language teaching at Jean Monnet University.

The CILEC welcomes every year 500 students coming from more than 30 different countries.

At the CILEC, a team will be at your disposal to facilitate your integration, accompany you during your learning of French language and civilisation as well as for your administrative procedures.

The CILEC is part of the Jean Monnet University of Saint-Étienne, which welcomes and trains more than 20,000 students each year, including 3,000 foreign students. Thanks to its cutting-edge research and its growing number of international labels, it is a university that innovates and transforms itself.

Jean Monnet University is a key player of its territory and beyond, of the greater Auvergne-Rhône-Alpes region, while resolutely opening up to national and international partnerships. CILEC students thus benefit from all the advantages offered to students of the University and beyond, of the region.

Our offices are accessible to people with reduced mobility.

Saint-Etienne, the choice of a city on a human scale

Known nationally for the quality of its Saint-Étienne is the only French city designated as a creative city for design by Unesco.

Saint Etienne is also one of the most attractive cities for rent in France.

Saint-Étienne is a university town with 27,000 students, including 20,000 at the Jean Monnet University. Initiatives have been developed to ensure that student life is rich in entertainment.

At the beginning of each academic year, in September, about fifteen events bring together all the students of Saint-Étienne.

Culture, history, architecture, design, hiking, nature, bathing, food, so much to discover in Saint-Etienne and its surroundings.

Being close to Lyon (45 minutes by train), Saint-Etienne is perfectly located to travel to the Alps, the French Riviera and Paris.

University Diploma of French Studies

BEGINNER NOT ACCEPTED

This university diploma (A2, B1, B2 and C1 levels) is especially dedicated for foreign students willing to improve their knowledge of French language and culture. It trains the student in the following linguistic skills : writing, reading, listening and speaking. Our courses are structured around the recommendations of the CEFR (Common European Framework of Reference for Languages), a global standard used for describing language ability.

Weekly schedule*

- 15H of general french by level : from Monday to Friday, from 9am to 12pm
- 3H speciality modules : 2 sessions of 1:30 in the afternoon
- 2H of personal work in the library, or in participation in cultural or sport activities

To train in immersion

To improve French language learning and the integration of our students in our territory, we regularly propose cultural activities according to local events.

- Meeting and exchanges between students
- Creative workshops
- Visits of historic and cultural location
- Sport activities
- Student parties, cinema, concerts...

MAXIMUM 19
PEOPLE PER GROUP
20 HOURS BY WEEK

Rich of more than 5000 books and videos, in a calm and welcoming environment, our Learning Resources Center is open for our students.

Our teacher-documentary specialist will guide you throughout all your stay.

*Due to the health crisis linked to the COVID-19 epidemic, on-site teaching modalities could change to online courses to ensure the safety of the teachers and students. The CILEC keeps also the possibility to close a level group if there are not enough participants.
