Which “Études en France” procedure for me?

The application file

It applies to international students :

- Who are not citizens of the EU, the EEA, or Switzerland;
- Residents of a country covered by the “Études en France” procedure;
- Holders of a non-European high school diploma;
- Those wishing to pursue a program at a French institution, excluding selective non-university programs.

The application file is optional if the student is applying to programs not listed on the platform or to exchange programs.

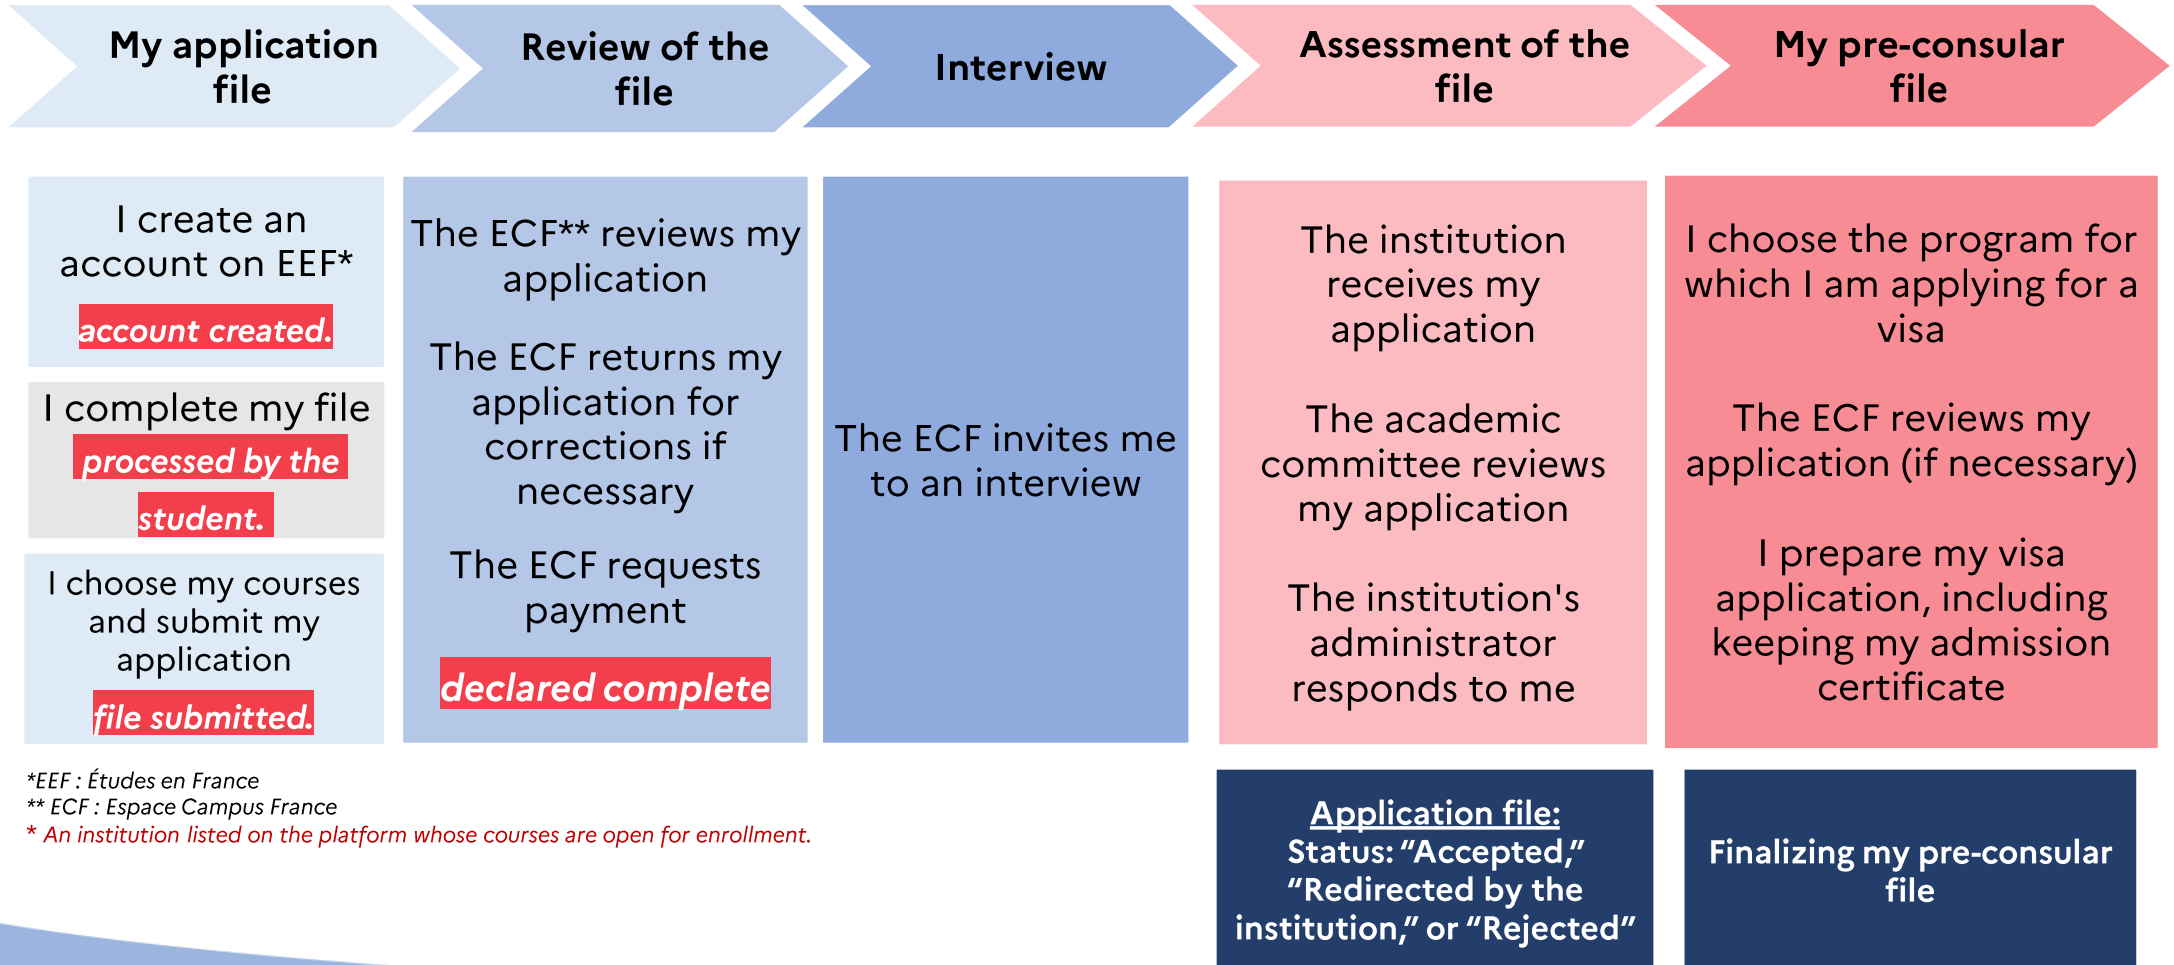

The pre-consular file

It applies to international students :

- Who are not citizens of the EU, the EEA, or Switzerland;
- Residing in a country covered by the “Études en France” procedure;
- Who have been admitted to a program in France;
- Applying for a long-stay visa (>90 days) to:
 - Pursue studies after pre-enrollment;
 - Participate in an exchange program as part of a cooperation agreement.

The pre-consular file is mandatory for any student who has been admitted to a degree program or exchange program in France.

What should I do when the institution is connected to “Études en France”?

*EEF : Études en France

 ECF : Espace Campus France

* An institution listed on the platform whose courses are open for enrollment.

What should I do when the institution is not connected to “Études en France”?

*EEF : Études en France

 ECF : Espace Campus France

* An institution that is not listed on the Etudes en France platform.

The program I'd like to apply for is listed on “Études en France”

Preliminary Admission Application (DAP) Procedure	Non Preliminary Admission Procedure (hors DAP)
- First year of the bachelor's degree program - Program at a national school of architecture	- Other years of undergraduate study (L2, L3) - Master's (M1/M2) - Engineering, business, or art schools

When I go to the course catalog, a tag shows whether the program I'm interested in requires me to complete the application process entirely on “Études en France” or if an additional step outside of the platform is required.

If the “Additional procedure required” label appears, I should contact the institution.

It is important to find out about the prerequisites and application procedures for the program you are interested in.

The program I'd like to apply for is not listed on the “Études en France” platform

There are certain cases in which the admission procedures are handled outside the “Études en France” platform:

- The institution I wish to apply to is not connected to the “Études en France” platform ;
- The program I am applying to requires me to complete an additional procedure outside of the the “Études en France” platform ;
- I am requesting an exemption from health-related coursework : I apply directly through my ECF, which forwards my application to the university I wish to attend ;
- I am applying to a selective non-university program (BTS, BTSA, CPGE, DN MADE, etc.), I am applying through Parcoursup ;
- I have a French or European high school baccalauréat and would like to enroll in the first year of a college or university program (I am applying through Parcoursup).

I'm reaching out to the institution where I'd like to apply.

I submit my application file

Once I've filled out all the sections in my student portal, the "TO BE COMPLETED" badges change to "COMPLETED", and the following message appears at the top of the page: "Your application file is complete." You can now submit your application file. Please note that after submission, you will no longer be able to modify it."

Schedule an appointment and declare a payment

When I need to schedule an appointment or declare a payment, my Espace Campus France prompts me to do so. I receive an email, and a message appears on my home page, allowing me to schedule an appointment or declare a payment I've made.

The screenshot shows the 'ÉTUDES EN FRANCE' user hub interface. At the top, there's a header with the French Ministry of Europe and Foreign Affairs logo, the 'ÉTUDES EN FRANCE' logo, and user account options like 'My account' and 'EN'. Below the header is a navigation bar with links: 'Home', 'Courses catalog', 'My files', 'My payments', and 'My appointments'. The main content area is titled 'Welcome to your hub' and features two prominent cards. The first card, 'APPOINTMENT TO BE TAKEN', has a calendar icon and says 'My appointments' followed by 'You need to make an appointment for your application interview' and a right arrow. The second card, 'DECLARATION REQUESTED', has a coin icon and says 'My payments' followed by 'You need to declare a payment.' and a right arrow. At the bottom, a footer note says: 'Find below all the latest information in the "News Feed" tab and your latest messages in the "Messages" tab.'

My pre-consular file

I was accepted into a program after applying through "Études en France"

1. If I've been accepted into a program, a success message appears.
2. I click the "Access my pre-consular file" button to select my study project.
3. Once I've selected my study project, I don't need to re-enter my personal information; it's automatically imported from my student hub.
4. I simply need to choose my study project and submit my pre-consular application.

 Congratulations, you have been accepted into a program.
You can now access your pre-consular file to choose your study project.
